

WHAT WOULD LOVE DO?

Faith That Acts. Love That Leads.

Join author, speaker, and leadership developer Byrd Baggett for a thoughtful and challenging exploration of what it means to follow Jesus in a divided world. Through Scripture, personal stories, historical reflections, and practical application, participants will examine how Christians are called to preserve human dignity, confront racism, seek truth, spread hope, and live out love in tangible ways.

Built around the question "What Would Love Do?", this presentation invites participants to move beyond good intentions toward faithful action. Together we will explore how ordinary people can become agents of hope, reconciliation, and moral courage in their families, churches, communities, and nation.

Byrd Baggett is an author, keynote speaker, former Fortune 500 executive, and co-founder of True Growth®. A former All-American athlete at the University of Texas, he has spent decades helping leaders grow personally and professionally. Through his Preserve Human Dignity™ (PhD) initiative and Unity Covenant, Byrd encourages people to Be Peace, Do Justice, Speak Truth and Spread Hope.

This presentation is designed to inspire reflection, encourage courageous conversations, and challenge participants to move from belief to action—because, as James reminds us, "faith without deeds is dead."
